We've curated a list of top art exhibitions that you can attend this month to beat the heat.

MUMBAI

Lapses 2

Curated by Anushka Rajendran, Lapses 2 is an exhibition that brings together artists like Neerja

Kothari, Kartik Sood and Gautam Kansara amongst others who protect their memories from lapses by displaying works in varied forms of paintings, drawings, installations and videos.

When: April 12 to May 12, 2018

Where: Sakshi Gallery, Arthur Bunder Road, Colaba, Mumbai 05

Spring in the Wintertime

Tasveer takes us through the works of Bas Meeuws, a Dutch photographer, at this exhibition. Find a selection of 43 photographs which showcases his new and previously unseen Indian work alongside the Dutch Golden Age tradition of “flower painting” which inspired his early floral still life.

When: May 11 to May 31, 2018

Where: Tarq, Apollo Bunder, Colaba 01

DELHI

Everything is Black and White

Take a walk into the world of black and white as the artists at this exhibition put aside the color spectrum to give you paintings that explore tranquility. Expect to find works by eminent artists like MF Hussain, A Balasubramaniam, Anupam Sud and Gigi Scaria amongst others.

When: May 4 to June 15, 2018

Where: Palette Art Gallery, 14 Gold Links, New Delhi 03

Vocabularies

Witness the works of three artists Sarika, Shaila and Kruti Thakker who showcase their artistic vocabularies using unusual materials and processes. Explore Sarika’s use of feathers, fabric and shells; Shaila’s use of mundane daily objects to create life sculptures by twisting and turning; and Kruti’s use of patchwork and embroidery.

When: April 15 to May 30, 2018

Where: Gallery Art Positive, Old Mehrauli Badarpur Road, New Delhi 30

Nature | Deliberated

This exhibition takes you through the observed physical world by transforming the unknown objects into an idea of what it could be. Curated by Monica Jain, expect to find paintings by Indian artists like Divya Pandey, Kundan
